JOHN ALLEN'S DESCENDANTS IN WASHTENAW COUNTY, MICHIGAN

By Mary Campbell

James Crawford Allen was the only one of John Allen's three children who remained in Michigan, spending most of his life in the Ann Arbor area. He was the oldest child of John Allen, one of the founders of Ann Arbor, and his first wife, Mary Crawford. In his childhood James C. Allen often seems to have been under the care of his grandmother, Elizabeth Tate Allen. His sister, Elizabeth May Allen, married William W. Wilson and lived in Wisconsin. His half-sister, Sarah, John Allen's only child by his marriage to Ann Barry McCue, returned with her mother to Virginia in the early 1840s, married Dr. John Waddell on 20 January 1848, and remained in Virginia.

On 9 May 1848 James married Miss Martha T. Porter and moved to Tecumseh where he lived until after her death in 1852. His father, John Allen, also lived in Tecumseh a short time. James and Martha had two children, one of whom "died early." The other, Mary Crawford Allen, became the wife of Frank C. Wood of Ann Arbor, but left no children. His second wife was Mary Jane Ayres of Brooklyn, Jackson County, Michigan. They had four children: Daniel Ayres Allen of Chicago, Martha who died in 1876 at the age of 15, William McClung Allen, also of Chicago, and Elizabeth Tate Allen, who was an invalid at home in 1891 but later lived in Chicago. James purchased a farm in Pittsfield Township on the southwest corner of Packard and Platt Roads. The dates on the abstract of the property show that he owned the farm from 20 October 1853 until 11 November 1864.

The third wife of James was Frances Eliza Ayres, a sister to Mary Jane, who survived him. They had two daughters. Frances Josephine Allen married a man named Hard and died in Ann Arbor in 1926 leaving a son named Edward. Edward's father had moved from Washtenaw County. The second daughter, Genevieve, married a man named Carter. They lived in California.

James C. Allen moved to a home in Ann Arbor Township on the Whitmore Lake Road in Section 17. A picture of his home is seen in the Everts and Stewart 1874 Combination Atlas. James C. Allen died 22 July 1896. Frances (Ayres) Allen died in 1918.

WASHTENAW COUNTY MANUSCRIPT MATERIAL HOUSED OUTSIDE WASHTENAW COUNTY

By Barbara Snow

As any genealogist knows, not everything of value that has been written has been published. This manuscript material is often saved and much of it eventually ends up hundreds or even thousands of miles from the family or area to which it originally pertained. One method of locating manuscript material is to use the National Union Catalog of Manuscript Collections, put out by the Library of Congress. Most large libraries will own this, especially academic libraries. The University of Michigan Harlan Hatcher Graduate Library has one in their Reference Room (Ref z 6701 N28), but a telephone call to the Ann Arbor Public Library confirmed that they do not own one. The NUC for manuscripts comes out on a more or less annual basis, with more or less annual supplements. Sometimes two years will come out at once and often there will be a cumulative supplement of as many of five years of indexes. Each volume will contain a brief entry describing a collection. The entry will include the main entry for the collection, the archives or library in which it is housed, the dates the material covers and the donor, as well as the descriptive blurb. The index will index these entries by place and name. This does not mean that every name connected with a collection is indexed -- only major names will get covered, but it will index those names that are included in the brief description. Family papers will get indexed under the name of the family and only major pertinent names will also get indexed. Sometimes more complete indexes to collections are at the archives or library. When this is the case the descriptive entry will include this information; again, you can not count on all names in the collection being indexed in such indexes. They vary greatly as to how thorough they are.

By looking up Washtenaw County in the NUC we can locate several entries pertaining to this area. Many are housed in libraries and archives in the county, but a few of interest turned up in other counties. The following entries include Washtenaw County information, but are not housed in Washtenaw County:

GILBERT ALLEN OF LODI TOWNSHIP

Compiled by Margaret Allen Brann

Gilbert Silas Allen was born 6 September 1807 in Varick Township, Seneca County, New York, the eighth child of Silas and Esther (Gardner) Allen. He was married 10 February 1836 to Nancy Waddell, daughter of William and Margaret (McAfee) Waddell of the Town of Lodi, Seneca County, New York.

Gilbert Allen purchased 160 acres of Government land in 1835 in Lodi Township, Washtenaw County, Michigan. The following year he brought his bride to Michigan by covered wagon and settled on the southwest quarter of Section 9 in Township Three South, Range Five East. Their neighbors were the Sweetland, Waters, Davis, and Geddes families.

In 1853 the family moved to Section 3 of Lodi Township, and in 1867 Gilbert and Nancy Allen moved to the Orrin Howe (first postmaster of Lodi) farm in Section 23. He died 17 March 1880, age 73, and his widow continued to live on the farm until her death on 31 July 1894. Both are buried in the Lodi Township Cemetery.

Nine children were born to this marriage, all in Lodi Township.

i. Emily Berthune Allen b. 19 March 1837, became the fourth wife of John Van Duyn of Trumansburg, NY.

ii. Phebe Van Duyn Allen b. 23 April 1838, m. 28 May 1868 Randolph Davis, Jr., son of Randolph and Mary "Polly" (Geddes) Davis of Lodi. In 1883 she resided in Olivet, Michigan.

Their only child, Gilbert Clayton Allen, grandfather of the compiler, was born 30 April 1869. Lewis was a merchant in South Lyon, Oakland County, Michigan. His wife died 2 July 1916, and Lewis died 19 December 1922.

vi. Gilbert Ethimer Allen b. 6 November 1846, d. 3 July 1868 at the age of 21.

vii. William Duncan Allen b. 17 April 1849, m. 14 February 1872 Ella Maria Wood, daughter of Jessup Scott and Ann Eliza (Ingraham) Wood of Lodi Township. Jessup Wood and his brother George imported Spanish Merino sheep to Washtenaw County in 1845, and thus began the fine wool industry that spread over most of southern Michigan in later years. Ella Wood was a direct descendant of Stephen Goodyear. deputy governor of the Colony of New Haven, Connecticut. In 1914 William and Ella Allen were among the pioneers to Lake Wales, Florida where they made their home in a tent for a year while preparing land to set out orange groves and waited for enough lumber to be shipped in to build a house. They had four children: Walter Jessup of Grand Rapids, Will B. of Jackson, Fred of Knoxville, Tennessee, and Mrs. James Ellwood "Nellie" Bartlet of Winter Park, Florida (1931). William Duncan Allen died 18 November 1933 in Lake Wales.

They lived in Saline where he was a well-known breeder of Merino sheep in Lodi Township. They had three children: Allen Fred who married Olive Atherton and was principal of Cheboygan High School in 1906, Rose Louise who married Leon Hathaway and resided in Wayne County, Michigan in 1923, and Flora who married --- Cusic. FROM OUR READERS

Gadd Cemetery, Bridgewater Township, Washtenaw County

The Gadd Cemetery (FHC, Vol. 8., No. 3, p. 59) at one time was known as the "Powell Cemetery". According to Clarence Bailey (1897-1981), a local historian of Clinton, Michigan, there was in his childhood an iron fence with a gate and sign which read "Powell Cemetery". The cemetery is on land purchased from the government by Robert Powell on 18 June 1832. His residence is listed as Wayne County, New York. Rev. Powell was one of the thirteen founders of Madison University, later named Colgate University. A complete biography is found in Everts and Stewart's Combination Atlas Map of Washtenaw County (Chicago, 1874), p. 24. While residing in Bridgewater Township he ministered to the Baptist churches of Clinton, Iron Creek and Lima. Rev. Powell's tombstone in the "Powell Cemetery" reads: "d. 23 July 1875, Lieut. Cleveland's N.Y. Mil., War of 1812". His first wife, Clarissa Webster, died in 1845 and is buried there also. The second wife of Rev. Powell was Mrs. Lydia Smith, whose first husband was a Fisk. Her burial is possibly in Clinton where Mr. Fisk died. In later years the property to the north was owned by the Gadd family; this may account for the current name given to this old cemetery.

Brokaw Family, Northfield Township, Washtenaw County

The Brokaw Family Bible (FHC, Vol. 7, No. 2, p. 54) caught my eye. The family named is found in the Webster Church records. Tombstones for many Brokaw and Terry family members stand in the church cemetery. Additional information from the ts for Isaac Terry, son-in-law of John J. Brokaw: "Isaac Terry, 1824, Feb. 10, Tomerius Co., N.Y. (?), 1907, Oct. 12; son of Elijah H. Terry of New Jersey and Margaret Terry of New Jersey". Isaac Terry was prominent in Webster Township, and is noted for being the designer of the Webster Township Hall (1871). He was an original board member of the Webster Cemetery Association (Society) formed 1894- his hand drawn lot plan of the cemetery, dated 1895, is on display in the church. His family history as well as the Brokaw family history are to be found in Chapman's History of Washtenaw County (Chicago, 1881).
